NUMB. 3068

SATURDAY DECEMBER 31, 1743.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Holland.

Petersburgh, December 14.

HER Imperial Majesty has been pleas'd to direct her Manifesto, in relation to the M. de Botta, to be communicated in all foreign Courts, and made as publick as possible. In this Manifesto, the Czarina complains, that the Court of Vienna, far from taking any Methods to satisfy that of Petersburgh, on the first Complaint of the M. de Botta, had applied itself solely to raise an high Idea of his Innocence, and to throw the Imputation of a false Accuser on the Czarina; which was a Conduct no way reconcilable to the common Rules of Decorum amongst Crown'd Heads, repugnant to the Law of Nations, and very little agreeable to that Friendship, Cordiality, and Respect, which, as a good Ally, the Court of Russia had Reason to have expected from that of Vienna.

The Manifesto goes on further to affirm, That the Defence set up for the M. de Botta by the Court of Vienna, is false, and unworthy of Credit. This Defence, it is said, may be reduced under the four following Heads; viz. I. The general good Character of the M. de Botta. II. The Nature and Import of the Orders and Instructions transmitted to him during his Residence at Petersburgh. III. The Testimony of the Court of Berlin; and the Circumstances attending his Ministry in the Court of the King of Prussia, IV. The want of Evidence under the M. de Botta's Hand; and, indeed, of all other Evidence, except the Declarations of some Criminals, who might be drawn by Intrigues, or terrified with Tortures; lured on with Hope, or seduced by Promises of Mitigation in their own Sufferings, to offer false and forged Evidence.

In Answer to the First Article, it is alledged, That this Charge does not attack the general Character of M. de Botta, but his Conduct only in his publick Character, as a Minister at the Court of Russia; and, in respect to this, the Czarina is very sensible, of his being embarked in the Intrigues and Designs of the late Government, even to the Prejudice of her present Imperial Majesty's Person; and that he persisted in these dangerous Practices, after the Restoration of her Imperial Majesty to the Throne of her Ancestors. As to the Second Point, the Czarina readily declares, That she has no Suspicion of his acting from Orders transmitted him from Vienna; for she is far from thinking, that this Minister ought to be considered as innocent, not only for acting without, but even against, the Dispatches sent him by his Court; but in this Case, if legal Proceedings can make out any thing, it is very clear and plain he did. In reference to the Third Head, it is far from being so clear or distinct, as it is asserted to have been. The King of Prussia having ordered the Count de Dohna to inform the Court of Vienna, that he could not insert the desired Clause of Accession, in the Letters Recredential of the M. de Botta, because, tho' he had never made any Proposition for bringing it about, to his Prussian Majesty, yet he commonly gave out, in his Discourse, That a new Revolution might be speedily expected in Russia; and the same thing has been certified to the Court of Petersburgh, from the King of Prussia directly, as well as from his Minister resident there. So that, on the whole, the Testimony of Prussia, instead of being at all favourable, is directly against the M. de Botta. To the Fourth Head of the Apology, it was supposed a satisfactory Answer had been given, when her Imperial Majesty had declared, that she was present at taking these Depositions; and that they were made freely, openly, without Promise or Fear, by all the Witnesses separate, who are yet unanimous, as to the Substance of what they depose. The relying upon Proofs in Writing, and other Proofs than the Nature of the Fact will admit, is going from the Point. It has been likewise urged, in favour of the Marquis de Botta, that this Charge against him, is not agreeable to the Account given by the Court of Petersburgh, at first, of this Affair, which was then said to be only a Matter of gossiping foolish Stuff among the Females; which is, however, a downright Subterfuge, like the rest. It was indeed, said, either first or last, that there was a formal or regular Conspiracy carried on in Russia; neither was the M. de Botta charged with being an Accomplice in such Conspiracy; but the Charge against that Minister was, That he not only held dangerous and seditious Discourses with certain Persons about the Court; but that he was the principal Author of them, and had engaged, all that in him lay, a Spirit of Discord and Disaffection, in order to bring Things, in time, into a State suitable to his Inclinations, and, in which, another Revolution might be attempted. The Close of the Manifesto suggests, how disagreeable it is to the Court of Petersburgh, to be involved in such Perplexities; and how much, against her Will, she has been drawn into this Dispute. That therefore the Intent of this Paper, addressed to M. Lanzinski, was to obtain a short categorical Answer from the Court of Vienna, Whether it will, or will not, afford a proper Satisfaction to her Czarish Majesty, for the Usage she received from M. de la Botta; and this Manifesto was sent to all the Czarina's Ministers in foreign Courts, in order to be made Publick for the Benefit of the World.

Stockholm, December 20. Baron de Korff, formerly Minister from the Czarina to the Court of Denmark, has delivered his Letters Credential, in Quality of Minister Plenipotentiary, and Envoy to his Royal Highness. General Keith acts in Quality of Minister from her Imperial Majesty of Russia. The M. de Laumarie, Ambassador from his most Christian Majesty, has propos'd renewing the Treaties and Subsidies, and even contracting closer Engagements with this Crown, in relation to the present critical State of Affairs in Europe; but this was taken ad referendum; and it is supposed no Answer will be given, till the Sentiments of the Court of Russia are first known thereupon. It is, however, more and more probable, that a new War will break out in the North next Spring.

Copenhagen, December 27. Not only the Baron de Palmstierna, but Count Tessin also, has notified his Letters of Recall to our Court. The latter, at taking Leave of his Majesty, told him, that the Court of Sweden wish'd nothing more earnestly, than that some Method might be found to restore a cordial Friendship between the Nations; but, as to the Expedient of the Renunciations of the Holstein Family, it could not be possibly complied with.

Genoa, December 17. Two Vessels arrived here this Day from the Islands of Hieres, by which we understand, that they left there 16 English Men of War; and that, in their Passage, they met five more sailing thither from Villa Franca; and that Admiral Mathews was gone from that Port to those Islands, and had issued Orders for all the Vessels belonging to his Fleet to join him there without delay. It is not doubted, that this is done to put himself in a Condition to dispute the Passage with the Fleet of the two Crowns, which is to escort the prodigious Embarkations, making not only in the Ports of Provence, but also on the Coasts of Catalonia, in order to transport a numerous Army to Italy, to deliver the Remainder of the Spanish Army under the Count de Gages.

Vienna, December 25. Her Majesty, it is said, has found it expedient to assemble a strong Army in Bohemia; and, for that Purpose, 12 Regiments are to march from Bavaria into that Kingdom. It is said, that Count Khevenhuller will command them. The Court of France having sent a Commissary to treat about the Ransom of Prisoners, an exact List has been made of all the Prisoners of that Nation, which amount to 18,500 Men; of whom about 10,000 are in Hungary. We have Advice from Dresden, that the Treaty which has been so long on the Carpet between the two Courts, has been finally concluded and signed on the 20th, which occasions great Joy here. The Affair of M. de Botta is of late become so serious, that it will be found necessary to desire the good Offices of the King of Great Britain, in order to restore a thorough Understanding with Russia.

Francksort, January 2. The Emperor has received very strong Assurances, in the Affair of the Dictature, not only from the King of Prussia, but also from the King of Poland. In the mean time, the Eyes of Mankind are upon the Hanoverian Minister, whose Determination is waited for with much Impatience. Baron Palm is, for the present, gone from hence to Treves and Mentz, but is speedily expected back; and then, it is thought, will attempt to take his Seat in the Imperial Dyet, which, it is foreseen, must raise great Heats in that August Assembly.

Dusseldorp, January 3. We have heard lately two extraordinary Pieces of News; the first, that his Prussian Majesty has ordered Count Dohna to declare to the Court of Vienna, that he can no longer bear to see a War in the Empire; and having made this Declaration, to leave that Court, and return to Berlin. The other is, that on New Years Day his most Christian Majesty promoted four Marshals of France, 28 Lieutenant-Generals, &c. and that all this is done to grace a new and surprizing Scheme of Cardinal Tencin, which is now on the Point of being carried into Execution; and, on which, the Fate of France depends.

AMERICA.

Philadelphia, September 9.

Extract of a Letter from on board the Ship Wilmington, of this Place, to one of her Owners here; dated at Cape Nicholas, August 29, 1743.

SIR,

'In 21 Days from our Cape saw the Virgin Islands, being July 23; the 26th Day off the Island of Moona a small Privateer from St. Domingo, and a small Sloop at Anchor, which suppose to be an English Turtler taken by the Spaniards; found two French Men and a Spanish Negro; the last told us he belonged to a Spanish Privateer that took this Sloop, and that four English were killed in the Action. The 27th in the Morning saw two Sail, which we found afterwards to be a Privateer from St. Domingo, and had taken Capt. Evans about 34 Hours before. Capt. Dowel retook Capt. Evans that Night, and sent her to Jamaica. I went in Chase of the Privateer where Capt. Evans and People was in the Afternoon, close under the Island of Savona; was so nigh, that I thought it impossible she should escape; but by the Assistance of their Oars they got off. I fired eight Shot at her. The retaking Capt. Evans and People would have given me as much Pleasure as the taking this Ship: I chased her two Days and one Night. The 30th Day came to Anchor in Sambay, where I found our Ship very much out of Trim for sailing; watered and put all to rights. August 7, near the Island of Ash, I gave chase to a large Ship, which we found to be a Man of War. As soon as I found my Mistake, made sail from her. August 18, about 12 Leagues to the Southward of St. Jago de Cuba, took this Ship coming from Maricabo, loaded with Cocoa, with some Cash on board, which comes home in Capt. Dowel, and the whole Account is inclosed. There were 63 able Men on board, 16 Carriage Guns, and four Swivels. Her Men I sent on shore here. They did not fight, because they say, the Ship was too nigh. The Captain comes home in Capt. Dowel, is much of a Gentleman, and I desire the Favour that he may be sent to Lisbon the first Opportunity. The Officers are all in good Health, and have a good Stomach for another Spaniard; they all join with their best Respects to you, and all the Gentlemen.

I am &c.

J. Sibbald.

Cargo known is 157 and half Tons of Cocoa, one Ton of Chocolate, and 10,000 Pieces of Eight in Cash. The Ship is about 200 Tons, commanded by Don Philip de Lorrea. The above Letter came by Capt. Dowel, who, together with the Ship, are now coming up our River 'Tis said, they have taken one Spanish Privateer, and sunk another.

The Royal BEAUTIFYING FLUID.

SO exceedingly valued by Ladies of Quality and all who have used it, for its transcendent Excellency in Beautifying the Face, Neck, and Hands to the most exquisite Perfection possible, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyshop at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand.

It gives an inexpressible fine Air to the Features of the Face on the Spot, and a surprising Handsomness to the Neck and Hands, which it immediately makes exceedingly smooth, fine, and delicately white.

Nothing in the World can sooner or more certainly take away all disagreeable Redness, Spots, Pimples, Heats, Roughness, Morphew, Worms in the Face, Marks of the Small Pox, Sun-burn, or any other Discolouring, nor remove all Wrinkles so perfectly; for it quickly makes the Skin become so incomparably fine, clear, plump, soft, and beautifully fair, as to cause Admiration in the Beholders.

It really gives a most engaging resplendent Brightness to the whole Countenance, and causes sparkling Life, Spirit, a juvenile Bloom to reign in every Feature, and yet is nothing of Paint, but far exceeds it, by its bringing the Skin, where-ever of the Face, Neck, or Hands, and tho' brown, red or rough, to a natural, youthful Fairness, Smoothness, and most charming Delicacy, which Paint only faintly imitates; neither is this ROYAL BEAUTIFIER prepared from the least Particle of Mercury, or any Thing Metaline, but is perfectly harmless and may be given inwardly even to Children. It has also a pleasant Scent, will not soil the finest Lawn, and is very agreeable to use.

But these its admirable Properties, by which it vastly exceeds any Thing whatever for the like Purpose, have occasioned many to imitate it, under various other Names, beware therefore of such Impositions, the true ROYAL BEAUTIFYING FLUID, that has given such universal Satisfaction to so many Ladies of Distinction, being only to be had at Mr. Radford's Toyshop above-mentioned at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle with Directions, and no where else in England.
